

- Clinical Review (3 to 7 members)

- As a member of the Clinical Review Committee, serving as a sounding board for Christi Center's paid staff and specific committees helps the organization identify best practices for its peer support method of assisting individuals through their journey of grief. Clinical review volunteers work directly with the Program Director to oversee the annual review of programs, train staff and volunteer facilitators, and contribute to other strategic areas.