

- Reception (as needed)

- When someone suffers a loss and is seeking help or information, the phone rings at the Christi Center. A caring and compassionate individual who can assist the caller in reaching the appropriate staff member as soon as possible is a vital component of supporting individuals on their grief journey.